

LONDON ART WEEK

12-18 OCTOBER 2026

THE CULTIVIST.

HELLO!

London Art Week returns in October, with Frieze and Frieze Masters at its core, bringing an ambitious line-up of galleries and artists to Regent's Park. With fairs returning across the city, major museum exhibition openings and exciting new gallery shows, our curated guide highlights the unmissable moments. All week long, our programme offers expert-led tours and artist lunches, bringing you to the centre of London's contemporary scene.

NOT TO MISS

If you have limited time in the city, here are our highlights!

RENOIR AND LOVE AT THE NATIONAL GALLERY

With over 50 works on display, this will be the most significant exhibition of the French impressionist's work in the UK for 20 years, dedicated to his most experimental, ambitious and admired canvases.

CARMEN HERRERA AT LISSON

Across four galleries, explore the range and dynamism of Herrera's art in her final twelve years, a vital culmination of her eighty-year enquiry into line, form and colour.

SALMON TOOR AT THE COURTAULD

Someone Like You is the first solo exhibition in Europe of the celebrated New York-based painter, bringing together 19 of his most iconic paintings, never-before-seen in Britain.

PAINTING THE FRENCH RIVIERA AT THE RA

A new blockbuster exhibition exploring the artist's paradise of the Côte d'Azur, with works by Cézanne, Renoir, Monet, Matisse and Klein.

MAGRITTE AT GAGOSIAN

This Is Still Not a Pipe: The Afterlife of Magritte examines the artist's legacy through significant paintings, works on paper, and sculpture, juxtaposed with works by more than forty other artists.

OUR EVENTS

These events were designed especially for your enjoyment. If you wish to attend, RSVP as soon as you can.
