WHILE IN MIAMI

Insider Tips shared by Kinga Lampert.

DINE

I love mixing Miami classics like Joe's Stone Crab and Casa Tua with exciting newcomers like Gigi Rigolatto at the newly reopened Delano, Gaia in South of Fifth and the return of the iconic China Grill at Bal Harbour Shops. For something more discreet, I love The Joyce, a tucked-away spot with intimate, speakeasy vibes.

DRINK

For cocktails, the Champagne Bar at The Surf Club is my absolute favorite. I love its old-world glamour and timeless elegance–it always feels like a little escape! For a daytime pick-me-up, the newly opened Ralph's Coffee truck in the Design District is a fashionable pit stop between boutiques.

SHOP

Bal Harbour Shops has always been a favorite, and its recent expansion brings even more designer boutiques to its lush tropical setting. In the Miami Design District, I particularly recommend the beautiful new Jacquemus and Alaïa boutiques, where fashion and architecture come together in unexpected ways.

RELAX

When I want to escape the energy of Miami, I love wandering through the gardens of Vizcaya, with its Italian Renaissance-inspired architecture and beautiful views of Biscayne Bay. Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden is another favorite—a lush tropical oasis where you can slow down and reconnect with nature.

BYE!

See you next year! And don't forget—we're here if you need anything.

We're available 24/7, so please get in touch with any requests or for additional recommendations at members@thecultivist.com or (212) 257-0202.
